CROESO I YNYSDDU

WELCOME TO YNYSDDU

Cafodd pentref Ynysddu ei enw o Fferm Ynysddu a adeiladwyd gan John Hodder Mogeridge ym 1804. Ym mlynnyddoedd olaf y 1820au bu hefyd wrthi'n adeiladu 'Y Rhengoedd'. Sefydlwyd y rhain fel arbrawf cymdeithasol wedi i Mogeridge gael braw o weld amodau byw erchyll y werin dlawd. Roedd 'Y Rhengoedd' yn galluogi nifer fechan o weithwyr i rentu tir i godi bwthyn a gardd i dyfu bwyd. Mae'r Rhengoedd wedi hen ddiplannu ond roeddent yn arfer bod wrth ymyl y 'Black Prince.'

The village of Ynysddu got its name from Ynysddu Farm which was built by John Hodder Moggridge in 1804. In the late 1820's he also built 'The Ranks'. These were founded as a social experiment after Moggridge became alarmed at the dreadful living conditions of the poor. 'The Ranks' allowed a small number of workers to lease a plot of land to build a cottage and garden allotment. 'The Ranks' has long since disappeared but was situated near the Black Prince.
