

NEWS DELIVERERS' RISK ASSESSMENT

The Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 and the Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 1992 requires you to have a Risk Assessment for news deliverers in place before you employ them and seek to ensure their safety whilst in your employment.

A Risk Assessment must be detailed on each individual news deliverer upon commencement of employment. Risk Assessment is an ongoing process and you must carry out further assessments periodically to ensure that controls are working.

Copies of Risk Assessments must be retained as you may be asked to demonstrate that you have carried out a Risk Assessment with your news deliverers.

Please use this form in-conjunction with the NFRN 'Delivering Safety' leaflet.

GUIDANCE FOR COMPLETING FORM

| Column 1 | The significant hazards associated with news delivery rounds are detailed here. The list of hazards is not exhaustive and therefore, a space has been provided on page 4 for you to insert any significant local hazards. |
| Column 2 | Controls to eliminate or minimise risks are detailed here. You should tick the appropriate box to confirm that you have explained to the news deliverer the controls in place to eliminate or minimise risks they may encounter whilst carrying out their duties. A space has been provided on page 4 for you to insert any controls in place to eliminate or minimise local risks. |
| Column 3 | You must insert details of how controls were conveyed to the news deliverer with details of any equipment provided to eliminate/minimise risks. This box should also be used for any follow up or corrective action required. Follow up action might be e.g. vicious dog at no 32 - advise householder. |
| Column 4 | Please insert completion date of any follow up or corrective action required. |

Page 4

A space has been provided for signature by both the news deliverer and their parent/guardian to confirm that a Risk Assessment has been carried out. Please ensure that this is returned to you.

The following blank Risk Assessment Form is provided as a template for you to photocopy
